

The Alzheimer's Poetry Project Presents
Poetry Party-

Fabu Carter

Monday, October 16th, 10am to 11:30am
Central Library,
201 W Mifflin Street, Madison

Free and open to the public

(Light refreshments will be served)

Featuring:

Former Madison Poet Laureate, Fabu Carter

Founder and Executive Director of the APP, New York Poet, Gary Glazner

We will read classic, well-loved poems and poems written by those living with dementia. A highlight of the event will be the creation of an original poem by the poets and the audience. This event is for people living with memory loss, their caregivers and the general public

The Poetry Party is funded in part by the Helen Bader Foundation and the Poetry Foundation.

The Alzheimer's Poetry Project is proud to have the Center for Community Stewardship as our fiscal sponsor.
